

Digital Literacy and Citizenship in a Connected Culture

Nicole Seymour's Action Plan

I plan on covering these topic areas and units:
Safety & Security	Digital Citizenship	Research & Information Literacy
Safety Security	Digital Life Privacy & Digital Footprints Connected Culture Self Expression & Identity Respecting Creative Work	Searching
I will begin teaching this program:	I will integrate the curriculum into Grades	I plan on teaching the curriculum
Later this Quarter/Semester	K-1 2-3 4-5 6-8 9-12	Once a week Other:
I will integrate the curriculum into the following courses:		I will involve the following stakeholders
English/Language Arts Media/Technology Other:		Principal Curriculum Leaders Media/Technology Specialist Library Teacher Parents Other: School Community

Certificate of Training

This is to certify that the certificate holder

Nicole Seymour

Has successfully completed 108 minutes of Professional Development on the Common Sense Media Digital Literacy & Citizenship curriculum

K-5 Training, 6-8 Training, 9-12 Training

Rebecca Randall
Vice President of Education Programs

25th September 2012

Date of Completion

www.commonsense.org

Common Sense Media is dedicated to improving the lives of kids and families by providing the trustworthy information, education, and independent voice they need to thrive in a world of media and technology.